Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL)

(a) to (c): Government of India already has different Schemes for special assistance to States affected by militancy. The States of J&K and those in North-Eastern Region affected by insurgency/militancy/terrorism have been included in Category 'A' with 100% Central funding and the rest of the States have been included in Category 'B' with 75% Central funding for the Scheme for Modernization of Police Forces. A special component for strengthening police infrastructure in the Naxal affected districts has been provided by making a provision of Rs.2.00 crore per affected district per year initially for a period of 5 years. Similarly, provision has been made for providing Rs. 1.00 crore per district per year initially for a period of 5 years for the 30 districts situated on the Indo-Nepal and Indo-Bhutan borders.

Further, Government of India is implementing the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme for six North Eastern States affected by insurgency and nine States affected by naxalism or militancy and the State of Jammu & Kashmir. Under the Scheme, expenditure incurred by the States for combating insurgency, naxalism is reimbursed in the manner specified under the Scheme.

In addition to the assistance provided under the Scheme for Modernization of State Police Forces and the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) scheme, States affected by militancy are also provided assistance under the backward districts initiative (BDI) scheme and the border area development programme (BADP) for various development programmes such as construction of roads , education, health facility, and other social a infrastructural projects.Statewise details of Central funds released in the last two/three years for modernization of police forces, SRE scheme, BADP scheme and BDI scheme are given at Annexure I, II, III and IV respectively.

(d): Government of India has been exhorting the concerned State governments to speed up the developmental expenditure under these schemes.
